THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 5, 1906.

Mr. Roosevelt's message to Congress, like most political papers, contains many admirable suggestions. He renews the attack on multi-millionaires but this seems mockery to us since, with the opening of each returning campaign these same people are asked to open their pocket books and 'set 'em up.' The war upon them must stick them as intensified hypocrisy. The "ditch" of course is the pet of the hour, but no word for public roads The man who does'nt 'provide for his own household is worse than an infidel and has denied the faith." The currency may be made 'elastic' ly and by. So far it is powerfully congested. And yet an humble man once remarked to us, "it would'nt be good unless it was scarce." If we could eliminate politics and substitute the practical for just one session of Congress we might then do without them for a decade.

Yes, Tillman spoke in Chicago and a little more tartly than he would have done had not those negroes put on airs. Dunne dodged, coward that he is and our 'Ben' had a word or two for him. Since Chicago stole the Judgeship from that negro it comes with poor grace to be posing as the negro's friend. There are no friends of the negro north of the Potomac and if he don't quit his foolishness he will soon have none South.

That brilliant but erratic Mayor of Toledo, Ohio, says "a free man ought not to belong to anything, he should not allow anything to submerge his personality. He ought to vote his own convictions and not wait for the committee or the convention to report a set of ideas for him." That suits the Times-Dispatch "to a t." Be bigger than party and so far as you can "bust it all to pieces." Defy the majority rub and introduce one man power, or despotism pure and simple.

And now old Buckingham falls into line and will be represented at Jamestown. The grand old county can always be relied on to do the right thing at the right time and in the right way. Let her sisters who are neglecting this splendid opportunity blush, or hide their faces in shame. To plead poverty is unmanly, unpatriotic and un-Virginian Buckingham and Charlotte have their faces toward sunrise and are getting ready to welcome the brighter and better day.

The death of President Spencer, of the great Southern system, was crowded with tragedy. On his palatial and private car, enroute to Florida for a hunting diversion, asleep in his berth, death came without a moment's warning and the life-throb ceased ere consciousness was on duty. The perils of travel are more and more pronounced and yet the tide of travel rises higher and higher with the coming and going days.

That negro preacher who advised Southern negroes to go North and become balance of power in many States, is wise and foolish. As soon as the "balance" becomes troublesome the "Chicago method" will become general and no negro need ever apply again. "Those whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad" and the negroes just now are "howling mad!"

Governor Swanson is ambitious that his administration shall live in history as eminently an educational one, and no man ever nursed a nobler ambition, and Superintendent Eggleston is nobly assisting him in the good work. Lead on, gentlemen and the people will follow you, the tax-payers will sustain you. Some of the Boards may need a little shaking up and it is yours to do it. Shake and shake 'em good.

Negro preachers are likely to lead their misguided flocks to hell here and hell hereafter. Mr. Roosevelt has drawn this fire and as he has'nt run under fire as yet let us hope that he will 'at 'nd pat' now.

We have had another great educational rally, now for better school houses and better school work. Labels don't make pure food and the education that ends in a rally is a failure.

"The Curtain Down On Curuso" reads a headline, but if there is any truth in his story, the Police are down on Caruso.

In the death of Miss Sarah E. Warden, of Staunton, Va. on Nov. 24th there fell asleep a woman of the loveliest christian character of Scotch and Huguenot ancestry, and Presbyterians from the days of John Knox.

She was an aunt of W. Warden Patteson, of Charlottesville, Va.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Bussing, 701 West third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted 12 years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one 50 cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering."

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.

Farmers as a rule do not keep books of account. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions, involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank, is safer than using money; because the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.

Money deposited in a bank is not so easily or so often "fooled away" as when carried a way in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books an we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.

The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the purpose of Congress, that the Government shall have the latest and best dictionary obtainable, and vastly enriched in every part, with the addition of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, from beginning to end, is edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is in all respects adapted to meet the severer and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular education than any preceding generation that the world has ever known."

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition, and in all other respects, and that it will be the source of constant reference.

Coley Fore's Death

Fircman Colie B. Fore, of the Lynchburg Fire Department, who had been ill at the Lynchburg Sanitorium since the Fire on Main St. on Thursday morning, died Saturday.

The cause of his death was due to congestion rather than to asphyxia. The fact that he became overheated and was so frequently chilled by cold water being thrown on him in saving from other lines of hose that cost him his life. This opinion is held by Dr. Rawley W. Martin.

Mr. Fore was a native of Appomattox county, being the descendant of one of the oldest and best known families of the county. Both of his parents are dead. Two years ago he removed to Lynchburg and followed his trade, that of carpentering. A year ago he was elected a member of the Fire Department.

Mr. Fore was 43 years of age. He was a member of Memorial Methodist church.

He is survived by the following brothers and sisters:

Mrs. Stephen Fore of Appomattox county; Mr. B. G. Fore, of Campbell county; Messrs. C. R. Fore, of Appomattox county; W. B. Fore, H. B. Fore and Mrs. L. O. Page, of Richmond; Messrs. D. W. Fore and M. E. Fore of Lynchburg; Mrs. C. H. Driskill and Mrs. M. P. Lee of Appomattox county.

Miss Fleshman Dead.

The death of Miss Mattie Fleshman, the charming daughter of J. P. L. and Martha T. Fleshman, has thrown a gloom over our whole community. This most amiable and christian young lady was born Nov. 28, 1883 and died about nine o'clock last Saturday night, Dec. 1st, aged 23 years.

At an early age she professed faith in Christ as her personal Saviour and united with Liberty Baptist church, of which she remained a consistent member until her death. During her illness she at different times referred to her hope in Christ saying at one time: "I am a christian," at another: "I love my Saviour;" and once, when she appeared to be convalescent, being asked by her mother what she thought would have been her fate had she died, she replied: I should have gone straight to heaven." Such evidence have her family and friends that she was prepared to die, and that she did not fear death.

She was educated in the High School of Appomattox, and afterwards pursued a business course in Bluefield, W. Va. After teaching three sessions at Bent Creek, Appomattox county, she accepted a position with the Miller Supply Co. Bluefield, where she lived for sixteen months, boarding with a married sister and making many warm personal friends. From that place she reached home for her vacation on the 4th of last August. On the 13th of the same month she was stricken with typhoid fever. During her long illness she received every attention that skillful physicians, trained nurses and affectionate kindred could render. Anxiously her friends inquired of her from day to day, and many prayers were offered for her recovery, but it was God's will to take her from us to the better land. In mourning for her, we have every assurance that our loss is her gain.

"Why do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms!
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms."

The pall-bearers were Messrs. H. W. McKinney, R. C. Harvey, B. G. Anderson, A. H. Gregory, R. E. Caldwell and Prof. W. E. McDonald.

Misses Helen Gregory and Rosa Paris acted as flower-bearers.

The funeral exercises, conducted by her pastor, were held in Liberty church on Monday afternoon and the last remains of our lovely friend were laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Besides her parents she has left five brothers and five sisters to mourn her loss, all of whom were present at the funeral.

Fat is of great account a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby grows as fat what it does is need immediately for use and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every gentle touch. They fight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as molasses to them.
